1 Today: 2,426 listings, no chat, and the English pages answer in Finnish

Bo promotes "English-speaking professionals", homes in Lapland and an office in Marbella. On the English site, though, the listing details, the description and the costs are all in Finnish, and every question goes to a single agent's phone, email or form.

Valmiiksi vuokrattu asunto hyvällä sijainnilla.

Tässä valoisassa kolmiossa Hyvinkäällä on oma sauna ja aurinkoinen lastettu parveke.

Valkoinen keittiö on remontoitu edellisen omistajan aikana. Sen päättykunnasta avautuu vireää näkymä puiden latvoihin. Lastettu parveke, oma sauna, tilavat huoneet.

Vuonna 1980 valmistuneessa taloyhtiössä on tehty viime vuosina monenlaista kunnostusta. Kaikkiin huoneistoihin on vedetty valokuitu. Taloyhtiö on ylimääräisessä yhtiökokouksessa hyväksynyt tarjouksen taloyhtiön rakennuskoikeuden myynnistä ulkopuoliselle toimijalle.

Asunto on tällä hetkellä vuokrattu, joten se sopii myös sijoituskohteeksi.

PROPERTY WATCH HELPS YOU FIND THE PERFECT HOME

With Bo Property Watch, you'll receive email updates on the newest properties that match your criteria. The watch handles the search for you, making the process of finding your perfect home easier and more convenient. Currently this service is available in Finnish, but if you're not familiar with the language, our team can assist by setting up the property watch for you and guiding you through the process.

CREATE WATCH

"Currently only available in Finnish"

Bo Property Watch, the service that brings buyers back, says so itself on the English buying page. Non-Finnish buyers need an agent to set it up for them.

English page, Finnish content

On bo.fi/en, listing Parantolankatu 7-9 has its description, "Huoneisto", "Asumiskustannukset" and "Hinta" all in Finnish. An international buyer can't read the costs.

Every question goes to one person

The options are a phone number, an email, the agent's calendar and a 4-field form. "What's the maintenance charge?" at 21:40 waits until the next morning.

2 With Mira: every listing answers 24/7, in the buyer's language, and books the viewing

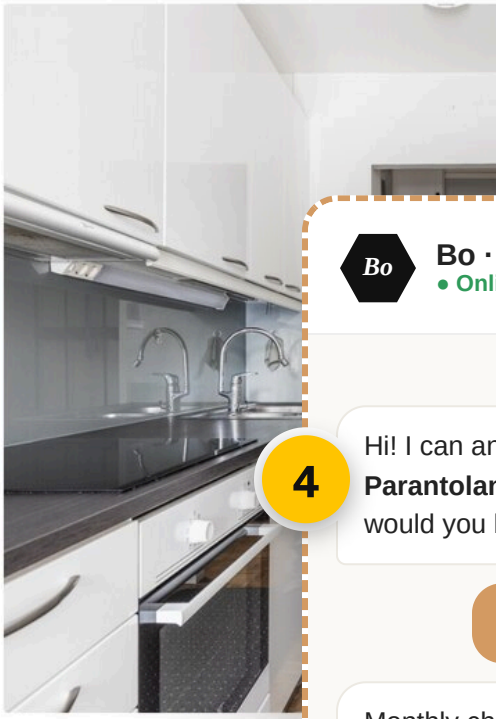

Mira learns from the listing data Bo already publishes, answers in English (or any of 95+ languages), offers times from the agent's calendar, and passes the buyer to the agent with a summary of the conversation.

Hi! I can answer questions about Parantolankatu 7-9 in any language. What would you like to know? 🙋

Hi, what are the monthly costs? And is it vacant?

Monthly charges total €647.59 (maintenance €532.50 + financing €115.09), plus water at €27 per person. The flat is currently rented out at €850/month, so it also works as an investment.

Any big renovations coming?

Recent work includes fibre to every flat (2024) and new locks and smoke alarms (2025). Planned renovations are in the maintenance plan (PTS). Shall I ask Terhi to send it to you?

The answers above use only data from the listing page itself (costs, rental, completed renovations). The viewing times are illustrative. Bo already offers "Book a time from my calendar" on every listing, and Mira would use the same calendar. Mira's open chat view is drawn in the style of serviceform.fi, not copied from the product.

3 Seller leads too: a free valuation booked in the conversation

Bo's most important lead form, "Book a free valuation", appears on every page. It has 8 fields and a reason dropdown. Mira can ask the same questions in conversation and book a valuation slot right away, in Finnish, Swedish, English or Spanish.

BOOK A FREE VALUATION HERE

A property valuation is free if you're considering selling your home. However, if you require a valuation for purposes like a bank appraisal, a fee will apply according to our price list. Fields marked with an asterisk are mandatory.
